An Abandoned Bundle - Poem Analysis by claire barri on Prezi

The entire poem is a metaphor for the atrocities of apartheid South Africa and the oppression of black South Africans. White City Jabavu represents all the black townships of South Africa. The scavenging dogs could represent the security police who were commissioned to keep black South Africans in line - submissive to the oppressive laws.

An Abandoned Bundle - Poem Analysis by claire barri on Prezi > Theme > Form > Diction > Tone > Rhythm > Rhyme > Imagery The speaker in the poem describes a shocking scene — dogs fighting over a baby they have found abandoned on a township rubbish dump. The speaker responds by throwing a brick at them to try to scare them away.

Poem "An Abandoned Bundle" by Mbuyiseni Oswald Mtshali ...

An Abandoned Bundle. The morning mist and chimney smoke of White City Jabavu flowed thick yellow as pus oozing from a gigantic sore. It smothered our little houses like fish caught in a net, draped in red bandanas of blood fought fiercely for a squirming bundle. I threw a brick; they bared fangs flicked velvet tongues of scarlet and scurried away;
