Baby Brezza Instruction Manual

It's important to sterilise all your baby's feeding equipment, including bottles and teats, until they are at least 12 months old. This will protect your baby against infections, in particular diarrhoea and vomiting. Before sterilising, you need to: Clean bottles, teats and other feeding equipment in hot, soapy water as soon as possible after ...

The definitive list of things you never need to buy

Useless purchases come in many forms. There's stuff that's used only a few times before being consigned to the basement or attic; stuff that's pricey to buy but could be rented instead; stuff that's outdated or soon to be obsolete; and stuff that you just don't need to begin with. With the economy currently in uncharted territory, frugality is the order of the day.
