I am selling a Sony digital media player, part number DSX-S310BTX. It is gently used, in great working condition with some blemishes, and it does come as shown in pictures. This receiver is missing the mounting bracket and does NOT come with any hardware, remote, extra plugs or wires from the back. It comes only with what you see in the pictures.

The DSX-S310BTX also comes with a seven-band equalizer, which gives you more freedom to tweak your car audio system to your taste. You have seven bands to adjust the way the audio sounds and more fully customize it to your particular vehicle. As stated before, the Sony DSX-S310BTX and other models in the series do not have CD players.

The DSX-S310BTX is a very capable, full-featured digital media receiver. With the convenience and safety of Bluetooth connectivity, Pandora functionality, dual USB connections, a great display and cool looking cosmetics, it's pretty hard to find fault with this Sony. Maybe I'll have to get around to ripping all of those CDs sometime. Sony.com

Just installed a Kenwood Excelon X302 CD/BluetoothAux In Single DIN with no problems. $70 refurbished. Previous sony tape deck was in there with a black plastic pocket attached to the metal bracket underneath the head unit. I simply just swapped the head units in the bracket. I don't think the Bevel was trimmed.
