Will Not Attend: Lively Stories of Detachment and Isolation by Adam Resnick (an Emmy Award-winning writer for NBC's Late Night with David Letterman) is a 272 page humorous memoir of sorts. I received a copy of the book from the Goodreads First Reads program. While a review isn't mandatory, of course I'm pleased to write one.

Praise for Will Not Attend "Adam Resnick doesn't merely summon the jaundice and surprise of early David Sedaris, his mini memoirs are unpretentious reminders of John Updike's everyman absurdities and Richard Ford's bewildered strivers. A biting, darkly hilarious collection of personal essays that begs to be read aloud."—
